

Rebecca Betts at Savvy Hair
Expressions

Clementina Ortiz
at Yesenia's
Mexican Store

KID'S
Makers Market
CHRISTMAS EDITION
Fostoria Area Chamber of Commerce

Eden Sheidler at Flippin Jimmy's

Kendyl & Cameron Shadbolt at Fostoria Community Arts Council

Peyton Griffin at Foster's Museum

June Kelbley at Flippin Jimmy's

Damien Ralph at Wolph Chiropractic

Hope Nowicki at Second Wind Music Center

Genevieve Shaver at Fit N Dance Shakin it with Shelly

KID'S Makers Market CHRISTMAS EDITION

Audrey & Emma Krupp at
The Center Street Artisan Market

Ali Osborne at Caring Hands
Pregnancy & Parenting Support Center

MEET OUR KID MAKERS

Rebecca Betts

Rebecca is a 13 year old Van Buren Middle School student who makes goat's milk lotions, lip balm and sugar scrub. Her family raises goats and she is selling her products to help her raise money for the future purchase and care of a horse. Find Rebecca and her products at Savvy Hair Expressions, 319 Perry St.

Hope Nowicki

Hope is a senior at Fostoria High School and also was awarded a Student Start Up award from the Chamber for her business Nowicki's Wickless. She makes and sells wickless candles in various scents with unique names. Find Hope and her products at Second Wind Music Center, 118 E. Center St.

Kendyl and Cameron Shadbolt

Kendyl is a first grader and Cameron is a kindergartner at Liberty Benton School. They love to craft and are selling a variety of homemade Christmas decorations and gifts.

Find Kendyl and Cameron and their products at The Fostoria Community Arts Council, 125 S. Main St.

Eden Sheidler

Eden is an eighth grader at Ohio Virtual Academy and she will be selling hand poured and scented marbled soaps and hand painted miniature canvases with original designs. Find Eden and her products at Flippin' Jimmys, 118 W. North St.

June Kelbley

June is a sixth grader at New Riegel and is selling homemade slime in jars as well as make your own slime kits to take home. Find June and her products at Flippin' Jimmys, 118 W. North St.

Damien Ralph

Damien is a third grader at Fostoria Elementary School and will be selling a variety of handmade ornaments and felt stockings. Find Damien and his products at Wolph Chiropractic, 123 S. Main St.

Audrey and Emma Krupp

Audrey is a sixth grader and Emma is a fourth grader at Van Buren. They are selling farmhouse style signs and cheese boards.

Find Audrey and Emma and their products at The Center Street Artisan Market, 115 W. Center St.

Clementina Ortiz

Clementina is a freshman at Ohio Connection Academy. She loves art and will be selling Christmas themed drawings on paper and canvas. Find Clementina and her products at Yesenia's Mexican Store, 162 E. Tiffin St.

Ali Osborne

Ali is a fourth grader at New Riegel. She is selling handmade infinity scarves in various colors and styles. Find Ali and her scarves at Caring Hands Pregnancy and Parenting, 202 S. Main St.

Peyton Griffin

Peyton is a sixth grader at Hopewell Loudon. Peyton is selling homemade Christmas slime in jars decorated as snowmen, the Grinch and reindeer. Find Peyton and her products at The Foster's Museum, 105 N. Main St.

Genevieve Shaver

Genevieve is a fifth grader at Fostoria Intermediate Elementary. Genevieve is selling glass bird feeders, wooden snowmen and ornaments. Find Genevieve and her products at Fit N Dance Shakin' it with Shelly, 210 S. Main St.